

BLAST OFF TO SPACE CAMP

ComEd's and the Adler's Shoot for the Moon Essay Contest Win an awesome free six-day trip to Space Camp!

Have you ever dreamt of walking on the moon, strapping on a jet pack and training like a real astronaut? You have a shot at reaching that dream by entering the Shoot for the Moon Essay Contest.

Visit www.exeloncorp.com/comed/moon for the essay question and contest rules.

Students currently enrolled in grades 6-8 at any school (public or private) in ComEd's service territory can participate.

Entries must be postmarked by March 20, 2007.

Grand Prize: One grand-prize winner will win an all-expenses-paid six-day trip to Space Camp in Alabama.

Runner-Up Prizes: A VIP party for your science class at the Adler and an Adler family membership.

See Web for details on all prizes.

Shoot for the Moon Powered by ComEd is an Adler Planetarium exhibit that highlights exciting stories of space exploration.

The Shoot for the Moon essay contest is open to all children currently enrolled in sixth-eighth grades who live in the ComEd service territory. Employees, officers, and directors, (and their immediate family members and members of the same households, whether related or not) of ComEd and its affiliates, subsidiaries, advertising and promotional agencies are not eligible to participate.

ComEd
An Exelon Company

ADLER
PLANETARIUM

Winning essays will be selected by Captain James Lovell,
leader of America's Gemini 12 Moon expedition, and a distinguished panel of judges.

